

iFLG set to take part in 10k The London Legal Walk to raise funds for vulnerable people needing legal support

On Monday 17 June thousands of people from the legal profession will be taking part in the annual 'London Legal Walk', a 10km walk through central London. The aim is to raise money for the London Legal Support Trust which funds law centres and pro bono agencies in and around London which provide invaluable assistance to some of the neediest people.

iFLG is proud to take part and help raise money for such a worthy cause and the iFLG team will be walking alongside the many other teams after work on 17 June.

The London Legal Walk started in 2005 with 330 walkers and each year it has gone from strength to strength with 13,000 walkers taking part in 2018 and raising approximately £830,000.
