Chinese New Year Celebrations at No 10 Downing Street

iFLG’s Ann Thomas, David Hodson and Sheela McIntosh were delighted to be invited to celebrate the Chinese New Year at Number 10 Downing Street yesterday evening, along with many members of the Anglo Chinese community. There was an address by the Prime Minister, Theresa May MP, about the importance of future relations between our two countries in trade, in research and development and in closer family ties. The Chinese consul spoke about this year celebrating 45 years of ambassadorial connections. Happy New Year of the Rooster!
